

A week in the life of the world
29 NOVEMBER 2024

Join the community
Instagram: @guardian_weekly
facebook.com/guardianweekly

SPOT ILLUSTRATIONS:
MATT BLEASE

4

GLOBAL REPORT

Headlines from
the last seven days

United Kingdom 8

Science & Environment 9

The big story

Europe A Russian shadow war
behind the scenes 10

15

SPOTLIGHT

In-depth reporting and analysis

United States

Biden's frantic two months to save the Democrats' agenda .. 15

United Kingdom

John Prescott, the link between Labour's past and future 19

Environment

A $300bn Cop finance deal that seemed to please no one 22

Technology

Our writer's week with a Japanese AI robot pet 30

Laos

How tragedy struck on the backpacker trail 32

Global development

Band Aid is 40, but is it out of tune with the times? 33

34

FEATURES

Long reads, interviews & essays

Are we right to strive to save the world's tiniest babies?

By Sophie McBain 34

The multinationals making

Spain pay for its scarce water

By Grace Livingstone 40

45

OPINION

Jonathan Freedland

Netanyahu has only himself to blame for ICC warrant 45

Van Badham

Social media protections
shouldn't be just for kids 47

Geoffrey Lean

A sliver of optimism at the conclusion of Cop29 48

*“
A tech
'broligarchy'
have made
billions building
social media's
Anxiety
Industrial Complex*

51

CULTURE

TV, film, music, theatre, art, architecture & more

Music

On the road with Kraftwerk's revolutionary Autobahn 51

Screen

Tim Robbins welcomes the real world into his roles 55

Reviews

Something Wicked this way comes 56

Books

Hope radiates through a bleak
midwinter novel 57

60

LIFESTYLE

Ask Annalisa

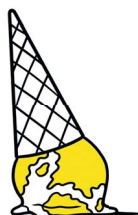

All about my mother 60

Kitchen aide

Dish up the nicest rice 61

Recipe

Lemongrass tofu 61

On the cover

Sabotage, arson, deniable cyber-attacks, other aggressive and passive forms of hybrid warfare:
the largely hidden struggle between Russia and the west since the Ukraine invasion began is no conventional military conflict. But after last week's Ukraine missile crisis, is Europe now heading more clearly in that direction?

Illustration: Sam Green/Début Art